How to Submit Financial Documents

Admitted students can email attachments in either PDF or JPG format to international@cgu.edu or upload through your Admission Portal. You will receive a response once your documents are processed.

* The International Services Staff at CGU will make the final determinations as to what constitutes an acceptable financial statement.

Estimated Annual Cost of Attendance

The Office of Student Accounts and the Office of Financial Aid determine the fees associated with cost of attendance each year. Actual costs will vary according to unit enrollment, semesters enrolled, and living arrangements. For more information, email student.accounts@cgu.edu or financial.aid@cgu.edu.

	Tuition	University Fees	Books / Insurance	Living Expenses ¹	Total Cost of Attendance
CGU Programs (unless listed below)	$48,470	$840	$2,400	$23,000	$74,710

An additional $4,000.00 for a spouse and $3,000.00 for each dependent child is required.

Students enrolled in International Scholars Program (ISP) should review the cost of attendance for their academic degree program.

¹ Living expenses include rent, food, transportation, and other expenses. Those who provide proof of annual housing fees (rent) less than $18,000 should email international@cgu.edu for consideration to lower the overall living expenses cost. Examples of approved documents include signed rental lease agreements, or its equivalency. The additional $5,000 in living expenses is non-negotiable.

² Arts Management university fees include a travel fee of $3,000.

³ Tuition is split between 12 units at CGU (total of $24,235) and 12 units at CSULB (total of $13,646)
