

4. Turn your focused topic into a focused question. Using the standard journalistic questions of who, what, when, and where, with a special focus on how and why, draft a list of questions (without answers). Focus on history, composition, and categories (see accompanying handout).

